PASTOR SPEAKS

This week I am at camp. I am keynoting the 9th Grade Camp. We are learning about discernment for vocation. It has been wonderful and tiring at the same time. It is wonderful because of the youth and their adult leaders. It is wonderful because of the possibilities of that are before all of us. The possibility of giving to others the gift of a fuller life in Christ through the spiritual disciplines we are learning about and practicing. The possibility of changing and enriching the lives of these young people.

It is ever so tiring. Rise and shine at 6:30 a.m. (not so bad) and bed at Midnight after a full day of activities and worship. However, it is a good tired because the work is so important.

One of the disciplines I have shared and have rediscovered myself is that of just stopping and letting the moment seize me. It is best described in this poem written almost a hundred years ago. It is as valuable today as it was then.

Leisure

by W. H. Davies

What is this life if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare?

No time to stand beneath the boughs,
And stare as long as sheep and cows:

No time to see, when woods we pass,
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass:

No time to see, in broad daylight,
Streams full of stars, like skies at night:

No time to turn at Beauty's glance,
And watch her feet, how they can dance:

No time to wait till her mouth can
Enrich that smile her eyes began?

A poor life this if, full of care,
We have no time to stand and stare.

I hope in this Summer season you find time to “stand and stare”. I look forward to reuniting with you this coming Sunday.

In Christ's Service
